Heaven Unfold

genau so wäre es nicht

humanytime 03

now is eternal

groove on

stop finding a sign for you in everything if you want to see you dont have to expect it to appear but you can earn the experience you fear groove on searching there is always someone by your side but for you no one can make it happen stop that trying groove on

stop reading a prayer for you everywhere if you want to be heard you have to say it by yourself but you can earn the experience you miss groove on and on there is someone by your side but on you it is to make it happen cancel that trial
groove on

stop catching love for you in everyone if you want to be understood for life you have to be free but you can earn the experience you lack groove on reaching out someone is by your side but on you it is to make your way please leave the temptation
groove on
with an open mind

it is on you to recognize the voice but you can make the choice

lost in possibilities

take the decision

if you want to dissappear open up and you can forget to fear just follow your mind

habe die liebe fliessen zu lassen
das wasser

flow

your soul is screaming for love and you cant even close your mouth for a kiss you know you hate yourself and you know you want to die you are out of touch

your mind is getting high for peace
spread your arms for an embracement
and you know you dont want to get into the stream
cause you are out of touch your spirit is raising for freedom

let grow your roots for a connection
melting to merge

there are bad things to loose when good waves trace you

cause good waves trace you habe den frieden wachsen zu lassen

die pflanze

ich wäre weit weg

woke up at night
found myself dead
a stranger in front of me i couldnt stand the pain a stranger i didnt want to deal with i was looking for something that makes me rich and expensive i feared the things i missed the most

a stranger i once had already known it was like we never met before we gazed into an abyss a step is as good as a stand put on your boots made of air ich bin weit weg

dort wo du nicht bist

ich lebe an einem ort wo es mir gefällt
ich möchte bleiben
dort an einem ort wo du nicht bist

put on your boots made of water a walk is as good as a rest

ich möchte bleiben

weit weg

wärst du nicht du

weit weg

our boots made of earth du bist mein anderes ich bist du

in Jesus Christus

die nacht in uns
gehört Jesus Christus

share a dream

if you read the news this morning and the world is described in black on white while you look out of the window and life appears grey in grey be serious and breathe the air you need be serious and laugh it away if you go for a walk today and nothing is how you expected be real and breathe the air the air you need to be true

if nothing is how you expected and you meet her then the world has to be discovered be true and breathe the air
to be free

habe die freiheit spielen zu lassen
das tier

the way to work

kunst des bewusstseins

something happens

experience

something happens

the truth

i feel stroboscoped

dont you

come over the rainbow

we are no doves

but we are still longing for peace

on the edge of the frontier within or out

peace on earth

der tod ist nicht von dieser welt und sei er noch so clever getarnt die welt kennt keinen krieg it is just the constellation of the confrontation was soll uns dessen tand bedeuten dem teubel schmeissen wir dessen tand hinterher lug und betrug ist höllisch in der relation auch wenn er noch einmal aufbeehrte der tote tod ist und bleibt ewig tot freedom at our door

there is no war

the key called love

elements dance

get yourself together

forever and ever

dieses land kennt

keine zeit der zensur

und die träume sind

keine tyrannen

a dove in the sky
we are dreaming

we refuse to lie

about this strange sleep

hand in hand
together we stand

we from the earth

nicht mehr gestern

noch nicht morgen

jeder neue tag beginnt mitten in der nacht
